Alternative Halter Class Procedure:

Up to four horses shall enter the arena at one time. Each horse will enter the arena at a walk, line up and stand for conformation judging. Exhibitors will then move to an area of the arena where they have space, and the judge will move to a position where all horses can be seen. Exhibitors will lunge their horses at the Announcer's call. Horses will be asked to gait, stop, reverse, gait, stop, walk and stop again, then will be called to line up and have final judging. The Judge may call for horses to be run off by lunging, but not by the handler being required to run with the horse. *Note: Actions that may disturb other entries (such as lunging circles before the announcer calls for the movement, or when asked to line-up, or stopping intentionally) shall be forbidden and may be penalized by a lower placing or being excused.
